

Embassy of the United States of America
Consular Section - Immigrant Visa Unit
Manila, Philippines

Dear K3/K4 Visa Applicant:

This is to inform you that an approved I-129F visa petition has been received by the Embassy from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) according you nonimmigrant status as the spouse of a U.S. citizen (K3) under Section 101(a)(15)(K)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended. This allows you and your unmarried minor child(ren) (K4) to enter the United States as nonimmigrants and later apply for adjustment of status as permanent residents. You are now eligible to be scheduled for a visa interview. You must pay the K visa application fee before you can schedule an interview appointment.

The application fee for a K3 or K4 nonimmigrant visa is US$265, payable only in Philippine pesos at the prevailing exchange rate. There are three ways to pay the K visa application fee: cash payment at any Bank of the Philippine Islands (BPI) branch; online payment bill option provided by BPI to their clients; or online payment through Bancnet.

All K visa applicants are required to present a U.S. visa application deposit slip to pay the K visa fee. They must print the applicable U.S. visa application deposit slip which can be downloaded from the online appointment website: <http://ustraveldocs.com/ph/niv-paymentinfo.asp>, and take it to the bank to pay the fee. For K1/K2 visa payment instructions, you may visit a link to our website at <http://manila.usembassy.gov/immigrant-visa.html>. The visa fee is non-transferrable and is valid for one year.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

- Come to the Embassy on your appointed interview date.
- If you are eligible for a K3 or K4 visa, your passport with the approved visa will be delivered to your designated delivery address at no additional cost. The Embassy uses a guaranteed courier service to handle visa deliveries. 2GO commercial courier is the new Embassy's authorized courier service provider for the visa units. Delivery should be within two weeks from your visa issuance. Applicants also have the option to pick up the visas at any 2GO branch.
- Some cases may need further review, which may delay the approval of your visa application by several more weeks. If we have questions about your application, we will send a letter and ask you to submit additional documents, or to return to the Embassy for another interview. No Embassy representative is authorized to tell you that a visa has been approved until a consular officer authorizes printing of the visa.
- For the safety and security of all applicants and employees, visa applicants are no longer permitted to bring cell phones or other electronic devices into the U.S. Embassy. Applicants who bring such devices will be denied entry. Please make arrangements to leave your electronic equipment in a safe location off Embassy grounds during your interview appointment.
- We will try to return documents that you submitted and asked us to return, but do not give us anything that cannot be replaced. Make copies of important documents and submit copies along with the originals you want returned to you.
- Your passport must be valid for at least six (6) months. We will ask you to submit a new passport if your current one has a validity of less than six (6) months.

- The K3 or K4 visa is NOT an immigrant visa (IV), nor is it a lawful permanent resident card (green card). It is a nonimmigrant visa (NIV) that allows you to travel to the United States to join your petitioner. An alien entering the U.S. as a K3 shall be admitted for a period of two (2) years. An alien entering as a K4 shall be admitted for a period of two (2) years or until that alien's 21st birthday, whichever is shorter. You must apply with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to adjust your status from a nonimmigrant alien to a legal permanent resident (LPR) before your authorized stay in the U.S. expires. Visit the USCIS website at <http://www.uscis.gov/portal/site/uscis> for additional information.
- Minor children of K3 applicants have derivative status, and do not need separate I-129F petitions to apply for K4 visas. K4 applicants may accompany the K3 to the U.S. or may follow-to-join the K3 parent at a later time. The children may apply for visas at the same time as the principal applicant parent or may be following-to-join derivatives of a K3 applicant, even after the principal alien has acquired lawful permanent resident (LPR) status. However, the cutoff date for issuance of a K4 visa is one year from the date of the issuance of the K3 visa to the principal alien. After one (1) year, they will no longer be able to derive immigration benefits from the I-129F petition and you or your spouse will have to file an immediate relative or second preference petition for them to qualify again for immigration benefits.
- K3 or K4 status shall be automatically terminated upon (a) the denial or revocation of the Form I-130 Petition on behalf of the alien, (b) the denial or revocation of the adjustment of status application, (c) the termination of the marriage between the K3 spouse and the U.S. citizen petitioner, or (d) the marriage of an alien in K4 status.
- Do not finalize arrangements for travel to the United States, dispose of properties, or resign from your job until a visa has been issued and delivered to you. Generally, a multiple entry K3/K4 visa is valid for two (2) years. The visa validity of a K4 who will age-out (turn 21) is limited before the child's 21st birthday.

WARNING

VISA FRAUD IS A SERIOUS OFFENSE. ATTEMPTS TO MISREPRESENT A MATERIAL FACT OR MISLEAD A CONSULAR OFFICER MAY JEOPARDIZE CURRENT AND FUTURE VISA APPLICATIONS.
